Rojavanam is a splendid home especially to the suffering senior citizens. This splendid home is a paradise of senior citizens and a haven where the angel-like nurses serve the weary and ailing, aged men and women with smile. The service of the nurses is much appreciated by the inmates for it is copiously blended with love and affection - fatherly and motherly or sometimes a combination of both.

Kind doctors treat the inmates of Rojavanam with great care, compassion and utmost sincerity and receive their gratitude only by a smile. Whatever is given is blended with love and Rojavanam finds happiness in giving happiness to the sick and old, sorrowful and grief-stricken at their old age.
